James H. Hobbin, Treasurer of S-. Alban's, Pisappears After Squabble-Minister Believes He Is Demented.

DECLARES WOMEN'S GOSSIP COST HIM MENTAL BALANCE.

Trouble Arose Over Theological Student Who, as Lay Reader, Was in Favor with Feminine Party in Church.

No trace of Joseph H. Hobbin, the ssing treasurer of St. Alban's Episco-Church, High Bridge, has yet been nd, and it is the opinion of the Rev. Wevill, the rector, that he has ne demented as a result of the conrish. He resigned as treasurer of the thurch a few days before he disappeared, and his accounts are in perfect condition, it is said.

For several weeks there has been dispsion in the church because of the disissai of Joseph Alten, a lay reader. ne young man is a student at the General Theological Seminary, and the recof the church, backed by several women t the parish, who wanted their own

The minister resented the infringement, on his powers, and wrote a letter to alten, telling him to come to the parish is the come to the parish is the come who are friendly to Alien say the minister is afraid Alten will be sected as rector after he is ordained.

Mr. Hobbin supported the minister, and it is said that his life was made hiserable by the aimost endless discussion. He was bothered from morning null hight by the women of the church. Mrs. Hobbin says her husband sufferd from insomnia for several weeks become he left home. She can assign no cason for his mental disturbance other han the church row. The minister resented the infringement, ason for his mental disturbance other than the church row.

They just worried him to death, although not speak, and these gossbers simply made him worse. There is no doubt in my mind that Mr. Hobbin's condition may be mought on by gossiping women. I blink that he was demented."

The missing man left his home Tuestay might after having placed all his money in a drawer in his bedroom. He was going back to his eiter, and the search for him was begun.

The missing man left his home Tuestay might after having placed all his money in a drawer in his bedroom. He was going back to his eiter, and the search for him was going. She died in the sanitarium took his own life.

Although not related to the young woman Hale passed as her cousin and visited her.

Two weeks age she disappeared from the sanitarium of Dr. Joseph C. Ohiendorf, at Brent-begun.

For several days he had been constantly muttering the sentence: "Everything in this store says Wevill." From that it was concluded that he had 'ost control of his mental faculties. He was sixty years old, 5 feet 5 inches in height and weighed 135 pounds. He had gray hair and a gray mustache.

Was going. She died in the satitarium led the charge after Armstrong for two miles until he got a chance to jump from his horse into the river and swim across to the Confederate side under a haif of bullets.

FIRST COLOMBIAN

yer of Note, Comes to Discuss with Our Government the Situation in Panama.

Francisco de F. Manotes, the first Commissioners in an enterance of the Panama, was a sassenger on the Atlas Line steamship. Addrondack, which got in this morning. Mainotes comes here to act with other commissioners in an enterance of the Panama, was standed and the surface of the Panama, was standed and the surface of the Panama, was standed by the first of the first of the Panama, situation, Just white it with institution would be taken Senor Manotes. Prefer howe, the first of the first of

of not size will make with a function as to whether in recly to a question as to whether she will make war on the United States, he said that that was not to be consid-

He continued: "The conduct of the United States has been a surprise to us. We did not imagine that the United States would do what she has done. I have not been to Bogota, but when I left. Colombia the feeling against the United States was not strong. I do not think Minister Beaupre is in any danger."

"if matters were left to us we would have no trouble in putting an end to it. You say that the Panamaros have declared that they could put 10,000 men in the field against us. Well, that is certainly so. The next day we could without any trouble put 100,000 men in the field against them."

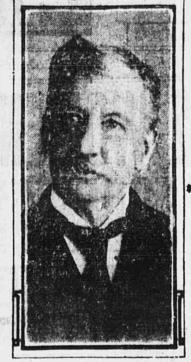

Senor Manotes went to the Hotel Muro, No. 116 West Fourteenth street.

TRIED SUICIDE; ARRESTED.

Tired of Life, Frederick Peters Turns On the Gas.

derick Peters, who has seen forty ars of life, determined he would have more of it to-day. Locking himself in his room at his residence, No. 138 at Fourtteenth street, he turned on

JAMES H. HOBBIN,

SHOT HIS WIFE

Murderer and Suicide Used Pistol in Home After Death of

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26 .- Three per sons are dead-one of them a suicide, as result of the relations between Robert notes to several friends, telling them the had concluded that he could not stand the disgrace that would accuse when the true story of the disgraph the first story of the discrete when the true story of the disgraph. ENVOYARRIVES

The when the true story of the death of Miss Hale should come out.

His wife was still in bed. He went to her room and killed her, after which he fired a bullet into his own head. Others from the house attracted by the shooting found him dead and lying across the body of his wife.

The home of Miss Hale was in Marietta. Ohlo. Her sister in that city set the investigation on foot that led to the arrest of the doctor.

they will meet him either to-day or tomorrow. They bear the sealed instructions from the Government at Bogota.
Senor Manotes, who is a lawyer of pute living in Barranguilla, said they would probably go to Washington within a day or so. He branded as false the rumor that Colombia was now so desperate that she would each annexation to Panama.
"Such a story from an Englishman, better the
such a story from an Englishman, better the
such a story from an Englishman, better.

Speaking of conditions in Colombia and the feeling down there when he sailed, eleven days ago, he said:
"Colombia does not want to make war on Panama. She wishes to make arrangements looking toward a settlement.
She wishes to regain Panama, and if she does not, war is probable, Whether or not she will make war is a very hard question to answer.

In really to a question as to whether

The really to a obsequies and provided for me last case ing place.

Benjamin Franklin Turk testified at the trial that he had known Mrs. Buesneech for thirty years, and her husband for ten years. Mrs. Buesneech was about thirty-five years of age at the time of her marriage, while Buessenech was much younger. He said he had frequently visited Baker's house within the last five years, and found Mrs. Buesenech living with him as his wife.

wife.

John McCarthy gave testimony along the same lines.

Both Turk and McCarthy identified a photograph of the dead co-respondent as that of Adam Baker with whom Mrs. Buesenech had resided.

SHIPPING NEWS.

PORT OF NEW YORK.

The state of the s	si
ARRIVED.
Sanitago de Cuba         Havana           Adirondack         Port au Prince           Idacomo P         Naples           Catanta         Santos           Persiana         Calcutta           Idell'sulo         Santos           Plo Crande         Mobile           Barcelota         Hamburg           Cedric         Liverpool	WHAFPE
'NCOMING STEAMSHIPS. DUE TO-DAY.	RE
DUE TO-DAY.  Neckar. Bremen. El Valle. New Orlea/18.  Pretoria. Hamburg.	FAH

OUTGOING STEAMSHIPS.

CHURCH TREASURER, WHO IS MISSING. WOMAN'S STEAD

Protect Mrs. Coit from Attack of Discharged Business Agent and Was Shot Defending Her.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 28 .- Maor J. W. McClung, well known on the

The shooting occurred in Mrs. Coit's apartments in the Palace Hotel, and with Detective Sergeants Granville, Gug-

Mrs. Coit is famous as the only

Garnett was her business agent, hand- several weeks. ing much of her real estate. She was also heavily interested in stocks and Major McClung, who is nged, was a siedge hammer, visiting Mrs. Coit, having known her for many years, and while they were The safe robbers ments unannounced

As Major McClung dropped to the to the first man who moved. floor, probably mortally wounded. Garbeen captured.

Both McClung and Garnett served charge at Selma, although he was a Confederate officer. He was surprised at Selma by the Federal cavalry, who were after Armstrong, and because he wore a Federal cavalry hat they lieved him one of their own, and he

FIRE, SAVES WIFE

George Peters Goes Through Opening Made in Adjoining House and Stumbles Over Un-

The annual fall tournament at Lakewood, which always begins on Thanksgiving Day, began this morning with an all day 18-hole medal play, qualifying

There were ninety starters and three sets of sixteer, will qualify. The first set will qualify for the Country Club of Lakewood cup, the second sixteen for the Metedeconk cup and the third xteen for the Carasaljo cup. The early scores returned were:

To Cure a Cold in One Day

FATAL FRIGHT.

Aged Major McClung Sought to Seven Men Arrested After Fight in Saloon, Charged with Breaking Open Strong Box of Mott Street Grocer.

ALLEGED SAFE

wholesale grocery at No. 164 Mott street past as a broker and clubman, is be- detectives from Police Headquarters to-Street Court, all of whom are said to be members of the notorious "Monk" Eastman gang.

caused the greatest excitement. Mrs. gan, Kinsly and Gargan, in which a Coit, now aged, is prostrated because of number of shots were fired and two men the encounter and is being attended by escaped. The men who escaped are believed to have carried the money stolen from the grocery safe.

woman ever actively connected with The robbery of the grocery occurred the local Fire Department. In pioneer some time during the night and was plandays she ran to fires with the firemen and was later elected a member of one that has marked the robbery of many of the compensation. safes on the east side during the last Gaining an entrance into the store th robbers turned the safe upside down. other securities. A few days ago Mrs. This must have required the combined Colt and Garnett disagreed and she dis-charged him. This made thim angry, and bored in the bottom of the safe and since then he has been drinking heavily. the iron and steel were beaten in with

"Monk" Eastman Gang Again.
The safe robbery was reported to Po talking in her rooms in the hotel Gar-nett entered. Apparently he was very drunk. He had passed the beliboys and elevator men and came to the apart- man gang, and they went at once to the dives the men frequent. In the dark, He was hardly in the room when he ill-smelling saloon of Harry Rothstein tol in Home After Death of produced a revolver and levelled it at No. 60 Attorney street, the detectives Mrs. Coit. Major McClung sprang at came upon nine men, including Roth-the infuriated man and in the struggle stein. Quickly surrounding the place, Garnett pulled the trigger. He believed the detectives closed in upon the men. he was aiming at Mrs. Colt, but McClung They attempted to escape, but pistols was in front of him and got the bullet. were drawn and threats of death made Two men sprang from the group and nett ran from the rooms and escaped started running. Shots were fired at from the hotel before the hotel attaches them and one of the detectives followed, could reach the apartments. He has not but the two men ran through dark hallways and escaped. The other seven men became threaten-

Carried Jimmies and Drills.

They were taken to Police Headquarers and there recognized as Harry Rothstein, owner of the saloon; David Winds Up in Row in Which Four Beer Glasses Hit Waiter's Head at Same Moment.

The "Grand Civic and Mask Bail" of the Original Gate Coterie in the New

Irving Hall, No. 214 Broome street, ended in a grand uncivil and free-for-all fight early to-day. When the engagement was over it took the ambulance surgeons half an hour to patch up the Englishmen regard as the most fasciwounded. Abe Peters, a waiter, was carried to the Gouverneur Hospital. The dance was a peaceful affair until about the time some of the guests began to think of going home. An argument ended in blows, and when George Pinkney, the sergeant-at-arms, tried to stop the fight there was more trouble. Somebody hurled a beer glass, and the sergeant-at-arms was down and out. This was a signal for a general light, and for a time the air was filled with bottles, glasses, chairs and other things that do not feel good against the head Peters got into the argument and ou again in a hurry. Evidently he had enemies in the hall, for no sooner did he pear at the point of trouble than four

MISS GERTRUDE LIVIN, VICTIM OF

FRIGHTENED, SHE DROPPED DEAD

Insult Offered by Strange Man in Street to Miss Levin Caused the Bursting of Blood

The death of Miss Gertrude Levin. eighteen years old, in the home of he sunt, Mrs. Samuel Aronson, on the third floor, at No. 266 West Thirtynorth street, was caused indirectly by an insult offered by a man on the street. Miss Levin, who was engaged to be through the Civil War in the Confederate Army. Major McClung enjoyed the distinction of having led a Federal through the Selma, although he was a charge at Selma, although he was a confederate Army. The other seven men became threaten reveal threaten rev are nue by a man she did not know. The young woman, greatly frightened ran all the way to the Thirty-ninth street house, up the steep stairs to the stein, owner of the saloon: David Schleicher, of No. 146 Essex street; Sam Goodman, of No. 146 Essex street; Sam Bernstein, of No. 153 Suffolk street; Abe Bernstein, of No. 150 Chrystie street; Abe Leiberman, of No. 405 Delancey street; Joe Richman, of No. 150 Rivington street, and James Richman, of the same address.

When the men were searched three jimmles each three feet long and three drills eighteen inches long were found. Arraigned before Magistrate Flammer, the prisoners were sullen and angry. In the courtroom were other members of the notorious east side gang, to arrest whom the police had not sufficient evidence.

James Richman, who said he was a tailor, and Bernstein were both held without bail, suspected of the safe robbery. The other five prisoners thought they were to be let go, when Detective Granville said:

Others Remanded, Too.

"I wish you would remand these other prisoners, We have only evidence against them of carrying the illmmles and drills."

Tames and the way to the Street to he steet house, up the steep stairs to the third floor, and as she burst into the parlor she dropped dead while crying: "Oh, aunite, he is after me."

Obctors who were criled said that Miss Levin's dead was due to intense excitement, perhaps fright. Immediately after Miss Levin's abide was to the bursting of a blood vessel near the heart. This, they added, was due to intense excitement, perhaps fright. Immediately after Miss Levin's abide to the street journey and month of the bursting of a blood vessel near the heart. This, they added was due to intense excitement, perhaps fright. Immediately after Miss Levin's death was closure reached the bouse her uncle went to the street to see who was pursuing her, but saw no one. In going up the stairs and passing the woman occupying the second floor Miss Levin said that a man had insulted her on the street and was following her.

On Seventh avenue pear where the young woman is believed to have been many complaints of men insulting women who pass. In several instances they ha

RICHARD CROKER

Former Tammany Leader De clares His Visit Was One o Personal Compliment and Had No Political Significance

Mr. Ritchie, the ex-chancellor of the charge to-morrow. Exchequer, who met for the first time Original Gate Coterie's Dance since the disruption of the Cabinet. While both sank their political differences to honor the American political Myman, the philanthropist, who deeded leader, there was an air of formality "Homewood" to Hopkins University and reserve which might thave spoiled died to-day. the effect of the dinner, but Mr. Bryan s wit and amusing stories of American political life broke up all reserve and kept his fellow diners in constant laughter and had every one on good terms.

Mr. Bryan is said to have made a strong impression on the group of noted Englishmen who were invited to meet him, and his conversational ability was said to equal that of Mr. Choate, whom nating talker since Lowell's day. Ambassador Choate's gueste to mee Mr. Bryan were Prime Minister Bal four, Lord Onslow, Minister of Agri-culthre; Lord Denbigh, Sir Robert Giffin, the famous statistician; Ritchie, Leonard Courtney, the famous Ritchie, Leonard Courtney, the famous Liberal, and Sir Glinton Dawkins. Previous to the dinner Mr. Choate took Mr. Bryan to the Bank of England.

Last night Mr. Bryan went into South London to hear Lord Rosebery make a political address. He was recognized by the audience and enthusiastically cheered.

ISRAEL ZANGWILL MARRIED.

beer glasses were hurled at him. They struck his head almost at the same instant. He collapsed, the blood streaming from four rashes on the scalp.

Policeman Buckley heard the commonton from the street and called out the reserves from the Eldridge street station. They rushed into the hall and stopped the riot, but made no arrests. At the same time a call was sent to the hospital.

Distinguished Company Sees the Author Wedded to English Girl.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—Israel Zangwill, the author, and Edith Ayrton, daughter of W. E. Ayrton. President of the Institute of Electrical Engineers, were mastered that the same time a call was sent to the hospital. Distinguished Company Sees the

MILLIONAIRE IS STRICKEN DOWN FOR DUAL ARREST

Elisha B. Gaddis Falls in Death Faint at Table in His Home and Expires as Two Doctors Work Over Him.

Gaddis, head of the wholesa'e grocery up in connection with an alleged wire firm of Wilkinson & Gaddis, a trolley tapping scheme, John Bradley, a clerk magnate, one of the directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and a multimillionaire, died suddenly at his home at No. 1018 Broad streat here to-day. Mr. Gaddis was apparently in good health and made no complaint when he arose this morning. He went down to breakfast and while eating was seized failure and was confined to his bed for several days.

He was a widower. Two married daughters Mrs. Mathias Pium and Mrs. Carl Heller. survive him.

Mr. Gaddis was fifty-seven years old and one of the best known grain experts in the United States. He was prominent in public affairs and for a number of years a member of the common Council.

There Bradley, who had picked up Lawyer. Louis Lowenstein, insisted he had been arrested the night previous by one of the District-Attorney's staff and had been admitted to ball by Justice Wyatt in the morning. Inspector

MANIAC KNOCKS

Young Man Creates Consterna-Taken to the Hospital.

well-dressed and good-locking young man, whose identity is not yet estab- in Jefferson Market Court to-day her way from there to Mrs. Aronson's lished, caused a good deal of commo-home when she was accosted on Seventh tion to-day among the few employees on duty at Ellis Island. Soon after the boat, which leaves the Barge Office at 7.20 o'clock A. M., reached the island, he was noticed wandering about the building. He first appeared at the iron grating at the door of the New York detention rooms. He pounded and rattled the door until a watchman appeared and asked him whom he wanted. "I am looking for my umbrella," said he. The watchman questioned him fur ther, but could get no intelligible an swers, and finally told him to go to the main office after his umbrela.

The man drew off and delivered a smashing blow at the watchman's eye knocking him down, and then ran away He continued his disturbance until sev eral of the attendants grabbed him and after a struggle in which he left marks on all his captors he was overcome. Po licemen Mury and Smith went over from the Barge Office on the 9 o'clock boat and took him into custody.

The young man refused to answer the The young man refused to answer the policemen's questions and all he did say was so incoherent that nothing could be made of it. In his pocket was found a small prayer and hymn book, with the title "Child's Key to Heaven." On the fiy-leaf of this was written, "Robert A. Wynne, No. 120 West One Hundred and Fourteenth street, New York." He was taken to the Hudson Street Hospital

The police went to the address written in the prayer book and found Robert A. Wynne at home, but his brother John, twenty-three years old, was missing.

It was said that John had left the house early in the morning to go to church and that he had not yet returned. His brother said he had been troubled with nervousness for several weeks because of overwork.

Mrs. Tower. He followed the service attentively, occasionally participating in the responses.

The Empress telegraphed to the pascular to represent on account of her husband's indisposition, and sent the Court Chamberlain, Count von Muelinen, to represent her. Chamcellor you Busion.

HOKE SMITH DOWNED HIM.

Col. Rountree Glared in Court and Was Sent to the Floor. (Special to The Evening World.)
ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 26.-While en-

LONDON, Nov. 26.—William Jennings gaged in the trial of a case before Bryan continues to attract unusual attention here. His most distinguished Court, Hoke Smith, Secretary of the Intention here. His most distinguished caller to-day was Richard Croker, who came from Wantage to pay his respects to the man he tried to elect President three years ago. Mr. Croker said his visit was one of personal compliment and had no political significance.

Great stress is laid to-day by the press on Mr. Bryan's tact and cleverness at Ambassador Choate's dinner. His place at table was between Mr. Balfour and Mr. Ritchie, the ex-chanceller of the Charge to-morrow.

> PHILANTHROPIST DEAD. BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 26.-William

MAY SUE BANKER

John Bradley, Twice Locked Up in Connection with Alleged Wire-Tapping Scheme Now Threatens Revelations.

For being twice arrested and locked up in connection with an alleged wire of No. 145 West Ninety-ninth street threatens to bring suit for damages against a Wall street broker, said to be Robert Craighead, of Flushing, L. I. Bradley, in evening dress, was on Columbus avenue car last evening when another man in evening dress and a ma with an attack of heart railure. Two doctors were summoned, but they failed to revive him and he died in a short off the car. When Policeman Fleming while. came up Bradley's accuser, who is About a month ago Mr. Gaddis was known to the police only as "Bob," seized with a slight attack of heart said Bradley was wanted on a felony allure and was confined to his bed for mon Council.

As one of the directors of the North
As one of the directors of the North Jersey Street Railway Company he was indicted with others of the board in connection with the deaths of a number of school children in the Clifton avenue grade crossing crash. ley was furious, and, pointing to the complainant, said: "I know this man. He is a banker and before I get through with him I will involve him n the biggest scandal ever."

Assistant District-Attorney Corrigan onfirmed Bradley's story of being twice second arrest was uncalled for. Mr. Corrigan also refused to give out the ployees—Is Overpowered and street on complaint of a Wall street broker, who told the District-Attorney that he had been swindled out of $4,80 by a scheme similar to the old wire-tapping game. Mr. Jerome's detective gained access to the place and arrested four men.

When the case of Bradley was called neither Bradley nor the complainant Craighead, appeared. Magistrate Deue said that inasmuch as Bradley already had been arrested and given bond h would dismiss the case.

No. 145 West Ninety-ninth street, the address given by Bradley, is a carriage featory.

BERLIN, Nov. 26 .- The Crown Prince Frederick William, in behalf of Emperor to represent her. Chancellor von Buelov was represented by Privy Councillor

The services were conducted by Rev

"I am glad to learn that your churc building is to be dedicated on Thanks giving Day. I congratulate you on this happy result of the persistent and selfdenying labors of yourself and your associates, and wish you all many happy years of enjoyment of the sanc tuary you have thus secured."

GIBRALTAR, Nov. 26.-The Columbi H., the sailing boat nineteen feet long and of six feet beam in which Capt. Ludwig Eisenbraun left Boston, Aug sanitation it makes everything sweet, pure and sightly. Miller's Powerine is pure soap and pure ammonia ground to a smooth powder that never cakes or sticks in the package—every bit of it is available for use. MILLER'S Powerine

Later Lowenstein obtained Bradley's release on $1,000 bail. arrested, and he told the police to re-port to the Magistrate that Bradley's name of the complainant.

The raid referred to was made last tion Among Ellis Island Em- The raid referred to was made and Friday on a house in West Thirty-ninth

KAISER'S SON AT AMERICAN CHURCH

Crown Prince Represents the German Ruler at Services Marking the Dedication of New Edifice in Berlin.

William, took part to-day in the dedication of the new American Church, sitting between Ambassador Tower and Mrs. Tower. He followed the service

Dr. Van Slyke and Prof N. A. Brown of New York. Dr. Dickie preached the President Roosevelt wrote to the pas tor as follows:

LONE SAILOR ON LAST LAP. 11 alone, for Marseilles, and which arrived at Gibraltar Nov. 20, sailed from quickly cuts away grease from dishes and cooking tools; re-moves stains from the skin; keeps the drains clear; disinfects everything. Large package for 5c.—at all the grocers.

Don't use Powerine to wash clo hes get Miller's Soap with Naptha, the half-hour soap, the friend of the cloth. THE PENNSYLVANIA SOAP CO.

The Perfect

Cleanser

cleanser wherever there's spot of dirt, or stain, or grease. Wherever there's stubborn resistance to cleanliness and with Ammonia (5c)

Miller's Powerine is the best

Coward Shoe

FOR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

Our Combination Shoe, for Men and Women. The only shoe of its kind.

The shoe which fits so snugly up into the arch of the foot and is still always comfortably easy across the toes, because it is especially made two sizes smaller over the instep than any other

The shoe whose shape always gives perfect freedom in walking on account of its out-of-the-ordinary good fit.

SOLD NOWHERE ELSE.

JAMES S COWARD, 268-274 Greenwich St., near Warren St., N.Y. Mail Orders Filled.

ROCHESTER LAMP CO. LAMPS reduced to close out. 74 Park place.

DIED.

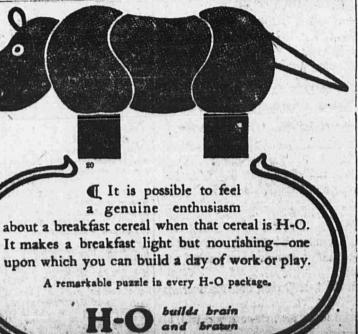

col.EMAN.—On Tuesday, Nov. 24. after a short illness, at his residence, 25 E. 61st st., GEORGE B. COLEMAN, of the firm of Mills & Coleman, and son of the late Mrs. Mary A. Mills and beloved brother of Julia Coleman and Mrs. M. O'Reilly.

Functal sarvices at St. Patrick's Castronia.

M. O'Rellly.

Funeral services at St. Patrick's Cathedral, Friday, Nov. 27, at 10 A. M. Relatives and friends invited to attend. DOWLING.—Mrs. MARY A. DOWLING, be-loved wife of John Dowling, mother of Anna A. and John, Jr., and sister of Richard Corcoran and Nell's Prendergast. Funeral from late re-dence, No. 599 Bedford ave., Brookly:, Friday, Nov. 27, MAHER.—On Wednesda, Nov. 25, WILL-IAM MAHER, son of the late William and Mary Maher. Funeral from the residence of his sis-ter, Mrs. Wm. Geraghty, 337 E. 22d st., Friday, 1.39 P. M.

Holiday Wants 1,366

IN THIS MORNING'S WORLD.

Purchase .... 12
Auction Sales ... 4
Aumusements ... 44
Financial ..... 49

Take a leisurely look at them. Find something you need.

Situations—Male 100
Help—Female 126
Aumusements 44
Help—Male 255
Houses, Rooms 283
Boarders 50
Hedical 256
For Bale 47
Business Ops 40
Business Ops 40
Business Reserts 12
Business Reserts 12